November 27, 2018

Dear High School Counselor,

Thank you for submitting your selections for the MLK 2019 Youth Program and Rudolph Gordon College Fair. The program will be held on February 2, 2019 at 9 AM, The location is the Trone University Center at Furman University, 3300 Point Highway, Greenville, SC 29613-9602.

I am hoping you have already begun your selection process to identify students for the Youth Award. We will need a list of winners completed by January 11th, to prepare for the event. We prefer that you send list of names as an Excel document to Bobby Clark at Nominations@alphagreenville.org.

Also, we have included MLK Nominations Sheets for you to send your winners to us by email via scanned PDF. Please be sure to include Name, Category, School, and Phone number (if you want a phone reminder for them). Please write clearly and eligibly so we will have the correct spelling and information for our winners. No Fax entries are allowed.

We are accepting your list of students as final winners and won't narrow the award from your selections. So, we are asking you to notify your winners to the date, time, and procedures of the award program. We have included a MLK Award Information Sheet that you can give each of your award winners once you have made your selections. We communicate the final instructions for the event by January 17th.

If you included the phone number of the student, we will make a phone on Thursday, February 1st before the event to remind about the program and asking them to attend.

We are also encouraging students and their parents to attend the College Fair surrounding the program. We will have several college representatives and two sessions will be well worth their attendance. The College Fair is open to any student seeking information about college, not just the award recipients. Please encourage any interested students to attend that morning.

If a student is not able receive their award, we will send your certificates to your office by mail following the event. Corrections can be requested by returning the correction form included with this packet to your Guidance Counselor Office or you can submit correction with a web page on our website.

Again, thank you for all your help and feel free to call me, Bobby Clark, at (864) 414-7926 or view our web site, www.alphagreenville.org, if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Bobby Clark

MLK Youth Program & Rudolph Gordon College Fair Information Sheet

Congratulations Award Winner!!!

You have been selected by your school's teachers and administrators to receive the MLK Youth award. This letter is meant to provide you with some information about the College Fair and Youth Program.

On February 2, 2019, the Rudolph Gordon College Fair will start promptly at 9 AM and will be held at Trone University Center at Furman University, 3300 Point Highway, Greenville, SC 29613-9602. In case of bad weather, we will not reschedule the event and certificate forwarding to your school's award program, please check on our foundation web site (www.alphagreenville.org) for any program changes.

All recipients must be ready to assemble by 9:20 am. We will need time to coordinate for the program, so please be prompt. Attire for the event is dress casual (Please, no jeans or sneakers). We will be taking a picture at the end of the Youth program.

The MLK Youth Awards will be given out at 11 AM following the College Fair on Saturday morning February 2, 2019. Light refreshments will be provided.

The College Fair will have two sessions, "What you need to know about Financial Aid?" and "What to expect in your First Year of College". Each session will last about 45 minutes. We strongly encourage you to attend the sessions. In addition to the sessions, several college representatives will be available to answer questions throughout the morning.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP at <https://mlkyp2019.eventbrite.com/>. If you are not present, we will send your award to your High School Guidance Counselor's Office. Corrections to the awards (misspellings, etc.) can be requested through your school's Guidance Counselor's Office.

Again, congratulations on receiving this award and I hope to see you at the Program and Fair.

Sincerely,

Bobby Clark
